Sir,

With reference to your memorandum No.6332/CB. dated 20-7-1950, returning the High Court letter of even number dated 10-7-1950 requesting grant of 13 days of whatever kind of leave admissible to Sri N.R. Jaya Rao, Additional District and Sessions Judge of Mysore, with effect from 12-7-1950 on the ground that the leave to be sanctioned is within the competency of the High Court, I am directed to invite kind reference to Article 235 of the Constitution of India which specifically lays down that the High Court is competent to sanction leave to all judicial officers except the District Judges. It follows therefore that whatever the provisions of the Mysore Service Regulations might be, under the overriding provisions of Article 235 the competent authority to sanction privilege leave or furlough leave to District Judges is the Government.

Sri Jaya Rao has since stated that he utilised only 4 days leave with effect from 19-7-1950 and availed himself of Sunday the 23rd instant in addition and reported himself to duty on 24-7-1950. He has requested that these 4 days may be treated as privilege leave or furlough leave. The Accountant General has certified that he is entitled to privilege leave on full salary for 13 days. I am therefore to request that the Government may be pleased to sanction Sri Jaya Rao, privilege leave on full salary for 4 days with effect from 19-7-50 with

with permission to suffix Sunday the 24th July 1950.

Yours faithfully,
